

My Great Big Friend

By: Miss McIntyre's 4th Grade Class
Midway Park Elementary

Little brown seed, so tiny and small
How did you grow to be so tall?
Your roots are strong, and oh, so deep
Soon you'll provide me enough shade to sleep.

To your big, brown arm a swing is tied
And you give me a wonderful place to hide.
Right foot, left foot your trunk I climb
Sitting up high, just passing the time.

Your leaves wave swiftly through the blue sky
Whispering softly to say "good-bye."
I bid you farewell, my great big friend
Until next time . . . I'll see you again.

Dillon Abell
Logan Brown
Alfredo Chaparro
Jade Floyd-Mims
Faith Muller
Kaetlyn Wyroski

Shaelee Antonine
Keira Burns
Addy Cohoon
Tomasi Grewe
Lovely Tauaalo

Hayley Austin
Caeden Byrd
Ralphy Fakahua
Raylene McCluskey
Jonathan Temsisouvanh

This poem was selected as the winner of the 4th Arbor Daze "Poe-TREE" contest to celebrate Arbor Day in the City of Euless on April 24, 2009.